

To the FCC:

Allowing media monopolies to exist is a dangerous and counter-democratic policy. In Louisiana, we have a long history of such troubles with the Manship and Flowers families controlling information for large numbers of people.

This must stop. Disallowing cross-ownership of media outlets in concentrated geographic regions assures that the people get varied versions of the facts, not some corporate interest's opinions.

Thank You.

-----Darryl Eschete